FACILITIES
The main campus encompasses 110 permanent buildings, including student housing for 1,980 residents and the 585-seat Gastronome dining complex. Other additions in recent years include: Titan Hall, Children’s Center, Student Recreation Center, Steven G. Mihaylo Hall and the University Police and Emergency Operations Center. Additions also have been made to the Joseph Clayes III Performing Arts Center, Paulina June and George Pollak Library and Titan Student Union, which recently completed a 27,000-square-foot expansion. The facility includes a 1,200-seat events pavilion, small theater, food court, pub, bowling alley and conference rooms.
The Kinesiology and Health Science Building includes the Center for Successful Aging. The Charles L. and Rachel E. Ruby Gerontology Center is home to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. The 10-story College Park building on Nutwood Avenue houses the College of Communications and College of Education, and provides additional classrooms and office space for staff and faculty. Three parking structures — completed in 2004, 2006 and 2010 — provide parking for about 5,500 vehicles. With the addition of the parking lot alongside Titan Hall, the overall number of university parking spaces in Fullerton has expanded to 11,507.

ADDITIONAL LOCATIONS
The Irvine Center near the Irvine Spectrum offers mostly upper-division and graduate-level courses in a convenient location for students who live and work in southern Orange County. Other locations include the Grand Central Art Center in Santa Ana and CSUF Garden Grove Center. The Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary is an education center and nature preserve in Modjeska Canyon, operated by the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics.

Fullerton Arboretum
The Fullerton Arboretum, developed with the city of Fullerton, is located at the northeast corner of campus and is open to the public. Heritage House, built in 1894 and moved to the 26-acre preserve in 1972, is a historical museum. A visitor and conference center includes a museum devoted to the agricultural history of Orange County and the contributions of Japanese-Americans.

Fullerton Marriott
A full-service hotel opened in 1989 on the southeast corner of the main campus in a project involving the Marriott Corp., the city of Fullerton and CSUF.

Titan Sports Complex
Revenue from the hotel venture was used to establish the Titan Sports Complex in 1992, featuring Titan Stadium (10,000 seats), Goodwin Field (3,500 seats), Anderson Field for softball, a track and full-sized soccer field.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS
Division I women’s sports are: basketball, cross country, golf, indoor and outdoor track and field, soccer, softball (1986 national championship), tennis and volleyball.

MASCOT
The choice of the elephant as the university’s mascot, dubbed Tuffy Titan, dates to 1962 when the campus hosted “The First Intercollegiate Elephant Race in Human History.” The May 11 student-organized event attracted 10,000 spectators, 15 pachyderm entrants and worldwide news coverage. Associated Press rated the story among the year’s top 10, and “Day of the Titan” was born.

CULTURAL EVENTS
The College of the Arts presents a wide variety of cultural attractions showcasing student and faculty talent, plus guest artists. Associated Students Productions events include noon concerts in Becker Amphitheater, singers and comedians in The Pub, and celebrity performers in the Portola Pavilion and Clays Performing Arts Center.

PHILANTHROPY
The Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation oversees the management of philanthropic gifts to the university. Its board of governors focuses its expertise, oversight and advocacy on enhancing private support for California State University, Fullerton.

SUPPORT GROUPS
CSUF maintains a large network of community support groups. These include: the President’s Associates, CSUF Alumni Association, Art Alliance, Association of the Friends and Docents of the Anthropology Museum, Colleagues of the College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Emeriti, Friends of the Fullerton Arboretum, MAMM Alliance for the Performing Arts, Music Associates, Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, Patrons of the Library, Reading Educators Guild, Titan Advocates and Titan Athletics Council.

AUXILIARIES
The university partners with a number of affiliated not-for-profit organizations that work to support and advance the institution’s educational mission, offer co-curricular experiences to students, and provide a variety of services to all members of the Titan community. They are: Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation, CSUF Alumni Association, CSUF Associated Students Inc., CSUF Auxiliary Services Corp. and CSUF Housing Authority.

PARKING
University parking is self-supported by fees charged to all students, faculty and staff members. Visitor parking is available for a daily fee of $8, or $2 per hour in designated spaces. Parking is free on weekends in most parking lots and after 5 p.m. on Fridays.
